

SUMMER VACATIONISTS RETURNING HOME; YOUNG PEOPLE LEAVING FOR COLLEGE

EL PASO will spend most of next week in welcoming the coming and speeding the parting, that is, the part of El Paso that has remained in the city through the summer. Every incoming train next week will bring familiar faces back to the city, from the seashore, the mountains and summer resorts all over the country. The Cloudcroft cottagers are coming back next week and the Lodge at this popular resort will soon be closed for the season. While the incoming trains bring back the summer vacationers, the outgoing trains will begin to carry away young El Paso to colleges and schools, to be gone for another nine months of study.

The coming week is the last one of freedom for the lower grade and high school pupils as a week from Tuesday the bells will clang and all of El Paso from 6 to 16 will tuck school books under their arms and stride more or less unwillingly to school. Society will be a little too busy, generally speaking, to indulge in much frivolity this coming week, but among some of the most interesting events will be a wedding, and a number of smaller club affairs, besides the two weekly dances at the Country club and the weekly hop at Fort Bliss.

The wedding that is of so much interest to society is that of Miss Hazel Pruett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pruett, who are prominent in El Paso, to Henry L. Fletcher, a young business man of the city. It will occur Saturday.

The Q. R. D. club will be entertained by Miss Anita Martin on Monday. Mrs. V. S. Rogers will entertain the A. L. A. club Wednesday, and the social department of the Women's club will give a card party at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown, also on this day. During the week Miss Hattie Mae Lorett will entertain the Beta Beta club and Mrs. H. F. Griffith the Merry Gossamers club.

Lodge members are interested in the big anniversary celebration of the Eastern Star to honor the birthday of the founder, Rob Morris, on Monday night with a fitting program that will be given in the Masonic Temple, and the end of the week the Western Rebekahs are going to a picnic of several days at Hueso Tanks.

When all the youngsters are settled in school and the growing up young people are safely off to college, then society will begin to liven up and a very gay winter season is expected for the coming months.

Weddings.

The wedding of Miss Hazel Gertrude Pruett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pruett, and Henry L. Fletcher will occur Saturday, September 5, at the home of the bride's parents, 1115 Rio Grande street. Rev. C. Wesley Webb will perform the ceremony, which will be a quiet affair, attended only by the intimate friends. Miss Anne Weeks will be Miss Pruett's bridesmaid, and Baron Fletcher of Little Rock, Ark., a brother of the groom, will be the best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding reception will be held, and the couple will leave for a two-week honeymoon trip in Mexico. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends in the Montana flats.

D. C. Evans, wedding engineer of the G. H. & A. A. railway, with headquarters in El Paso, and well known among railroad men generally, has returned from an extended trip through eastern and southern Texas. Mr. Evans while away was united in marriage to Miss Mattie Reid, a popular young woman of Vernon, Texas. The wedding occurred on August 19. After a honeymoon spent at Fort Worth, Dallas, Galveston and San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Evans returned to El Paso, and have gone to housekeeping at 1221 Frutas street. The return of Mr. Evans, a bride was a distinct surprise to his friends.

FAMOUS ACTRESS AIDS FRENCH POOR

MLLE. GABRIELLE REJANE.

Paris, France, Aug. 23.—Delayed by the war in the Normandy village of Honneville, Mlle. Gabrielle Rejane, the famous French actress, is doing her part by feeding and otherwise helping the poor of that neighborhood. The actress has amassed a large fortune during her stage career and says she is willing to spend every cent of it, if it be for, on the work she has undertaken.

Cards.

Miss Miretta Thorne will be hostess at a luncheon party at her home in Evergreen cemetery, next Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Race will entertain in honor of Miss Mary A. White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zach T. White, with a dinner party at their home on Montana street Saturday night. Later the guests will motor to the week end dance at the Country club.

About El Pasoans.

Little Gladys Hyles, who has been confined in Holston hospital with typhoid fever, is much better and is now at her home, 415 Myrtle avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McAttee will leave Monday for Las Vegas, where Mr. McAttee has business interests. Mr. and Mrs. McAttee have recently exchanged their bungalow in Alta Vista for valley land near Las Cruces, the exchange being made with H. M. Cantrell.

Dances.

Miss Helen Aguirre and Miss Fama Rickman will be joint hostesses at a dance Saturday night to be given at the home of Miss Aguirre on Nevada street, and the adjoining home of Mrs. William McSain. The lawn will be elaborately decorated with Japanese lanterns, and the porches and rooms of both homes festooned with garlands of greenery, studded with white cut flowers. Dancing will be the principal amusement of the evening, and an ice and salad course will be served during the evening at the home of Mrs. McSain. The event is being eagerly anticipated by many of the younger set.

The home of Miss Ode Aklin, on Rampart street, presented a most picturesque scene Friday night when the young set of El Paso gathered for a fancy costume dance and spent a most delightful evening. Many of the young people came masked, but so well does this younger set know each other that the masks were discarded early in the evening. The girls looked most attractive in their fancy costumes. There were a bevy of dainty milkmaids and French peasants in the crowd, and Miss Margaret McGhee and Miss Dorothy Luckland were the milkmaids, and Miss Nellie May French was the French peasant. Miss Jane Davis made a most effective Indian princess, with wampum and hand bells, and the full Indian costume. Miss Mary White was very stunning as a French maid. Her tulle was of black and white, set off by a tall peaked black cap, the body of the dress being white and the tulle ending in the characteristic long point of black. Miss Ode Aklin was a Spanish dancer, in a typical costume of orange and red with a red rose in her hair. Miss Anne McGuffin represented a Spanish woman in a gown of white with a handsome and yellow Spanish shawl draped over her shoulders.
